Title: From JC to UC

Publication Date: May 2, 2017

Summary: A handful of UC Davis' athletes have not spent their entire collegiate careers at UC Davis, instead competing for their first two years at a junior college (JC). Although each athlete has different reasons for taking the path from a JC to a UC, oftentimes their experiences prove similar.

UC Davis women's water polo senior attacker Emily Perry and senior goalie Avery Dotterer were both recruited out of American River College (ARC). The teammates have been playing together since high school and were friends for years prior, although their motivations for playing water polo at ARC differed.
