Title: Standing tall: Local artist's paintings to be showcased at arts center

Publication Date: August 2, 2017

Summary: Striking. Intriguing. Thought-provoking. These words supremely describe Gerry Otis Simpson's art work, paintings that often instantly provoke thoughts of joy and inspiration. Simpson's artwork portrays his emotions and what he sees everyday; an array of bright colors, shapes and images that express African American culture, and life in general.

Concurrently, he was a visual merchandising and fashion promotions professor at American River College.
