Title: After two transfers, Johnson has found environment he enjoys

Publication Date: September 22, 2017

Summary: Jabbari Johnson always reached out to family members for advice about football, academics and life, but he'd already decided to leave Sacramento State after the 2015 season. After two years with the Hornets — one spent redshirting and one mostly on the bench — he attended American River, a nearby junior college, for a year before coming to Bozeman, the first place he's lived far from home.
