Title: Michelin Man

Publication Date: October/November 2017

Summary: Brad Cecchi, who grew up in Carmichael and went on to earn a Michelin star as executive chef at Calistoga's Solbar, has returned to his hometown to helm the kitchen at the new East Sacramento restaurant Canon. The Land Park-based 34-year-old dishes about mixing global flavors with local ingredients, his take on the ubiquitous avocado toast, and how everything is coming up rosé. "While still in high school, I started taking [cooking] classes at American River College, and I got lined up to be one of the opening line cooks at the [then-new] Embassy Suites in Sacramento. That was my entrance. Through the American River program, I got an apprenticeship at The Broadmoor in Colorado Springs, which is a big five-star, five-diamond resort."
