Title: Hornets, Beavers, Panthers all win

Publication Date: October 14, 2017

Summary: Sacramento City College 21, Sierra College 20: Aaron Peart's extra point kick with 7:09 left in the game was no good, which eventually allowed Sacramento City College to escape with a 21-20 win at Sierra College Saturday. The Wolverines (3-2) had taken a 7-0 lead over the 6-0 Panthers to the third quarter before the offenses for both clubs took over. Jayden Machado (Elk Grove H.S.) threw a 17-yard TD pass to Carl Marc to tie the game at seven apiece early in the third quarter.

American River College 33, College of the Siskiyous 7: The Beavers (5-1) ran out to a 30-0 halftime advantage to win its first Nor-Cal Conference game of the season. Reserve quarterback Peyton Wilfley was 12-of-23 passing for 107 yards and rushed the ball 10 times for 98 yards and a TD.

Title: Bobcats receivers influential blocking downfield

Publication Date: October 13, 2017

Summary: The starting trio of Herbert, Kevin Kassis and Jabbari Johnson each bring their own style to blocking. Herbert is effective because of his knowledge of the game and what he's supposed to do at all times. Kassis, despite his 6-foot, 190-pound stature, capitalizes on his strong technique, hand placement and feisty nature. Johnson developed into a physical blocker at American River College because of their run-heavy tendencies.
