Title: Gershwin Meets Janczyk to Light Up ARC Stage

Publication Date: October 17, 2017

Summary: Bustling streets, honking horns, and ripping nightlife inspired George Gershwin's Concerto in F in 1925, which the American River College Orchestra will present on October 27 and 28. Joined by internationally renowned pianist, Dr. Kristie Janczyk, the American River College Orchestra will also take on Gershwin's "Cuban Overture" and Arturo Marquez' Danzon No. 2. Together, these three up-tempo pieces will make for a hopping program at the ARC Theater.
