Title: Sacramento fire Chief Walt White announces retirement

Publication Date: January 22, 2018

Summary: Sacramento Fire Department Chief Walt White is hanging up his boots in mid-March, he announced in a news release.

White began serving with the American River Fire District in 1987 and earned degrees in fire management from American River College and Sacramento State University shortly thereafter. He worked his way through the ranks and remained on board after a merger with the Sacramento County Fire Protection District created the Sacramento Metropolitan Fire District in 2000.
