Title: Wildcats nab 3 football commits Sunday

Publication Date: January 29, 2018

Summary: The Wildcats picked up three commitments on Sunday alone, upping their 2018 haul to 21 players with nine days remaining until National Signing Day.

K-State’s trio of commitments came from a quarterback (Levi Archer), a wide receiver (Malik Knowles) and a linebacker (Rahsaan York).

York was the first to announce, revealing the news in a message posted to his personal Twitter account. A 6-foot linebacker from American River College in Sacramento, California, York chose K-State over in-state rival Kansas.
