Title: Campus Corner: Good things happening

Publication Date: February 5, 2018

Summary: Hello fellow Placervillians. My name is Cameron Battersby and I am writing on behalf of the Student Activities Club at Folsom Lake College, El Dorado Center.

My experience at college this past fall semester has been quite a productive one. I joined the Student Activities Club and have been getting involved on and off campus. The club put on several events last semester, including the monthly Day on The Greens, where club members host activities and games for students as well as provide free food and coffee with live music in the quad.
