Title: Nine Oak Ridge student-athletes sign letters of intent

Publication Date: February 9, 2018

Summary: Nine Oak Ridge student-athletes signed letters of intent today at a signing event at the school.

Six football players and three soccer players will continue to play competitively when they move on to college next season upon graduating from Oak Ridge. Tyler Lackowski, Bryan Catchings, Sean Erickson, Marco Baldacchino, Justin Poerio and Carson Starr are the six football players who signed, while soccer players Hannah Spencer, Ava Nkadi and Noah Sonenstein will also be playing in college. Football coach Eric Cavaliere had a half-dozen players to talk about, as the football team was well represented on signing day. Lackowski (Bemidji State), Catchings (UNLV), Erickson (Southern Virginia), Baldacchino (Northern Arizona), Poerio (UC Davis) and Starr (American River) are all moving on to play football in college.
