

1.0 Statement of Objectives (Ed. Code, § 66010.4)

- 1.1 The primary mission of the Colleges in the Los Rios Community College District is to offer academic and career technical instruction at the lower division level.
- 1.2 In addition to the primary mission of academic and career technical instruction, instruction and courses shall be offered to achieve the following: the provision of remedial instruction and instruction in English as a second language, as well as other support services which help students succeed at the postsecondary level.
- 1.3 The Colleges will provide community services and programs so long as their provision is compatible with the Colleges' ability to meet their obligation in their primary mission.

2.0 Educational Programs

- 2.1 Lower Division College Education
 - 2.1.1 Courses which enable students, including those with scholastic deficiencies, to complete the first two (2) years of four-year college or university requirements.
- 2.2 Career Technical Education
 - 2.2.1 Courses which equip students with effective occupational training, developed in cooperation with business, industry, labor, and public service and directed toward skill improvement, training and retraining for employment.
- 2.3 Community Education
 - 2.3.1 Activities designed to meet the broad needs of the community coexistent with the regular on-going programs of the colleges. Because the extent of the activities is directly related to community needs, components of the program include, but are not limited to the following: credit and non-credit classes, adult education, continuing education, community services and development activities, and contract programs.
- 2.4 General Education
 - 2.4.1 A selected program of study to acquaint students with the great traditional fields of knowledge, including the study of language and rationality, natural sciences, social and behavioral sciences and humanities.
- 2.5 General Learning Skills
 - 2.5.1 Courses which enable students to correct general learning skills deficiencies.

2.6 Counseling and Guidance

- 2.6.1 Career technical, educational, personal and health counseling directed toward personal efficiency, identification of aptitudes and self-realization and realistic self-appraisal by students.

2.7 Supervised Tutoring

- 2.7.1 A non-credit course available for students who are assigned on the basis of an identified learning need by a counselor or an instructor.
